WRCCDC Code of Conduct

Preamble

The Western Regional Collegiate Cyber Defense Competition (WRCCDC) is a learning competition. Its primary goal is to provide competitors the opportunity to learn in a safe and fair environment. By applying their knowledge and skills in a real life scenario competitors gain practical experience and maturity from enduring the event's stresses and tests.

The WRCCDC is a resource intensive event requiring hours of dedicated effort, almost two hundred pieces of equipment, and funding that provides food, lodging and a venue amongst other things for the event. The WRCCDC's complexity also entails coordinated and substantial efforts to organize dozens of volunteers, develop and replicate the competition's systems, create and prioritize the injects along with many other preparations and activities to produce a successful event. WRCCDC's achievement is affirmed by the positive feedback of competitors and volunteers, and the growing interest in the event.

In order to protect and sustain the WRCCDC this Code of Conduct is submitted for agreement by all participants.

Code of Conduct

It is the intent of the WRCCDC to provide a fair and meaningful learning experience for the competitors. In that spirit there is an obligation for all participants to:

- Abide by WRCCDC competition rules
- Endeavor to participate according to the spirit of the WRCCDC
- Individual and team behavior needs to promote mutual respect not advocating or allowing harassment, intimidation, or humiliation of individuals or teams.
- Realize the social, legal and professional responsibility inherent in the IT profession and conduct themselves accordingly
- Value the opportunity provided by WRCCDC and all its participants including the coaches, and all sponsoring schools

In signing, I accept the WRCCDC Code of Conduct and agree to adhere to its precepts.
